

YGOB overlap screen: group-recovery trade-offs

Secondary descriptive analysis | all four frozen methods | no new confidence intervals

No-hit status does not establish family independence or absence of remote homology.

Original cross-pillar false-positive allocations retained; predictions were not subset-rescored.

Curated group co-membership includes within-species pairs; these are not resolved pairwise orthology scores.